

I agree with the Supreme Court's decision to enhance competition in the line sharing issue. The Court of Appeals have overturned the decision and that worries me to think of our government encouraging a monopoly with the Bells. We should be helping the smaller companies get on their feet and to help further competition instead of kicking them down!

Thank you.....Sabrina L. Tate